The Four Way Test
Of the things we think, say or do

Is it the TRUTH?	Is it FAIR to all concerned?
Will it build GOOD WILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?	Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

May 20 - Head Coach Gregg Marshall - WSU Men's Basketball

You are invited to show your support of Coach Marshall and the team by wearing your Shocker attire on May 20th!!

Gregg Marshall, whose teams have gone to the NCAA tournament nine of the last 15 seasons, including the Final Four in a record-breaking 2012-13 season, was named the 25th head men's basketball coach at Wichita State on April 14, 2007.

In 2012-13, a Final Four appearance by the Shockers topped a six-year reconstruction at Wichita State under Marshall. En route, WSU defeated Pittsburgh, Gonzaga, La Salle, and Ohio State before losing to eventual National Champion Louisville in the National Semifinal game in Atlanta. The voters in the USA Today Coaches poll rewarded the Shockers with a final No. 4 ranking, their highest final ranking ever.

Marshall has also coached WSU to the richest four-year stretch in school history as the Shockers have won a record 111 games. He earned the Valley's Coach-of-the-Year award in 2012 and 2013, while his teams earned the Valley's Defensive Team of the Year in 2011, 2012 and 2013. Marshall carries a 139-70 record in six years at Wichita State and a 333-153 record in 15 seasons as a head coach.

The back-to-back NCAA appearances in 2012 and 2013 were the first for the school since 1987 and 1988, the first in 24 years, while WSU's 2012 Missouri Valley Conference championship was the first since 2006. Entering the 2012-13 season, the Shockers had the best two-season record in WSU history after taking WSU back to the NCAA postseason for the first time since 2006, while they also won the 2011 NIT Postseason Tournament with a 5-0 record that included a finals trip to Madison Square Garden where WSU defeated Washington State and Alabama.

The reconstruction brought WSU from 11 wins in Marshall's first season to a school-record 30 wins in 2013 that ended with the Final Four trip, the second for the Shockers, but the first in 48 years. Marshall also coached the Shockers to the 2012 NCAA Tournament in Portland, Ore., where WSU lost to VCU in the Second/Third Round game.

Marshall's 2009-10 team played in the postseason NIT, received votes in the AP poll and advanced to the MVC Tournament title game, while the 2009-10 team played in the CBI. Marshall, who reached 300 career wins in 2012, came to WSU after completing his ninth year at the Winthrop helm, as he led the Eagles to their finest year with a third-straight Big South Conference championship, a seventh NCAA appearance and the school's first win in the NCAA tournament.

5/27 No Meeting Memorial Day

June 3 - Bill Boisture - CEO - Beechcraft

Boisture has more than 30 years of aviation experience. Prior to his current role with Beechcraft, he was the President of Intrepid Aviation, a privately held commercial aircraft lessor, and a senior advisor for aerospace at The Carlyle Group. Boisture is the former President of NetJets, Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation and British Aerospace Corporate Jets (a fore-runner to Hawker), and the former Chairman and CEO of Butler Aviation.

Boisture was a fighter pilot in the U.S. Air Force (USAF) and graduated from the USAF Fighter Weapons School and the U.S. Navy Fighter Weapons School ("Topgun" school). He was honorably discharged as a major after 11 years of service.

Boisture was on the board of directors for the Association of Graduates of the Air Force Academy for eight years and continues as trustee of the Falcon Foundation and as a member of World President's Organization. He earned a bachelor's in engineering from the U.S. Air Force Academy and a master's in business administration from the University of New Haven. Boisture has a commercial instrument rating and continues to be an active pilot, logging more than 500 hours in the past two years.
