Upcoming Programs

June 3 - Bill Boisture - CEO - Beechcraft

Bill Boisture has more than 30 years of aviation experience. Prior to his current role with Beechcraft, he was the President of Intrepid Aviation, a privately held commercial aircraft lessor, and a senior advisor for aerospace at The Carlyle Group. Boisture is the former President of NetJets, Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation and British Aerospace Corporate Jets (a forerunner to Hawker), and the former Chairman and CEO of Butler Aviation.

Boisture was a fighter pilot in the U.S. Air Force (USAF) and graduated from the USAF Fighter Weapons School and the U.S. Navy Fighter Weapons School ("Topgun" school). He was honorably discharged as a major after 11 years of service.

Boisture was on the board of directors for the Association of Graduates of the Air Force Academy for eight years and continues as trustee of the Falcon Foundation and as a member of World President's Organization. He earned a bachelor's in engineering from the U.S. Air Force Academy and a master's in business administration from the University of New Haven. Boisture has a commercial instrument rating and continues to be an active pilot, logging more than 500 hours in the past two years.

June 10 - Wayne Bryan and Music Theatre Performers

Wayne Bryan is enjoying his 25th season with Music Theatre of Wichita (MTW), where he has produced well over 100 Broadway-scale musicals, including dozens for which he also served as director or performer.

Raised in southern California, Wayne began his professional career as both actor and director at San Diego's Old Globe Theatre, while stationed as a Navy officer in Coronado. Wayne performed on Broadway in Good News!, Rodgers and Hart, and Tintypes, and on television in such shows as "M*A*S*H" (CBS), "American History" (PBS), and "Keystone" (A&E). He also directed productions for theatres all across the country before coming to Kansas, but he feels he's doing his most challenging and rewarding work now. Wayne is co-author with Mark Madama of a revised version of the collegiate musical Good News!. The 1993 Wichita premiere has been followed by over 300 subsequent productions around the U.S., Canada and Great Britain, plus an internationally acclaimed cast album.

In what has become an annual tradition, Wayne and some of the troupe from MTW will share a preview of the upcoming season with our club. You won't want to miss this entertaining program. For more information on Music Theatre of Wichita, or for tickets to any of Music Theatre's summer productions, please visit the MTW website for information.
