Upcoming Programs

July 29 — Ryan Rubi — Former News Producer Turned World Traveler

Ryan Rubi is a former television news producer turned full-time traveler. Frustrated with his career in Louisville, Kentucky, Ryan turned down a job in Boston to begin a 10-month journey that's taken him to Central America and Southeast Asia. He has not only conquered some of his fears (like scuba diving), but has also managed to escape from robbers unscathed in Guatemala and created a Web site to inspire others to travel.

Ryan is a Wichita native and graduated from Wichita State University in 2007 with a Bachelor's degree in Communication. He worked for two years as a news producer at KAKE-TV before moving to Louisville where he worked three years as a news producer at the ABC affiliate WHAS-11.

Now that he's home, Ryan is readjusting to life in the States and figuring out where his next destination may be. You can visit Ryan's website at lifeofabackpacker.com.

August 5 — Derek Schmidt — Kansas Attorney General

Derek Schmidt was elected the 44th attorney general of Kansas and took office January 10, 2011. Before being elected attorney general, Schmidt served 10 years as a Kansas State Senator representing the 15th district in Southeast Kansas. During his last six years in the Senate, he served as majority leader for the Republican Caucus. He also worked in private practice with the Independence law firm Scovel, Emert, Heasty & Chubb. Earlier in his career, Schmidt served as special counsel and legislative liaison to Governor Bill Graves, assistant Kansas attorney general for consumer protection, legislative assistant to U.S. Senator Nancy Landon Kassebaum and legislative director and general counsel to U.S. Senator Chuck Hagel.

Schmidt is a graduate of Independence High School and studied at Independence Community College. He earned his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Kansas, his master's degree in international politics from the University of Leicester in the United Kingdom, and his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center.

Schmidt currently serves as co-chair of both the Consumer Protection Committee and Social Networking Task Force for the National Association of Attorneys General. He is a Rodel Fellow in Public Leadership with the Aspen Institute. In 2006, Schmidt was the first Simons Public Humanities Fellow at the University of Kansas. He has been a Henry Toll fellow with the Council of State Governments and is a graduate of Leadership Kansas.

Schmidt and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of two young daughters.
