Butler is known around the country for his ability to attract the best talent and develop strong hitters. In his eight seasons at Arkansas, he helped the Razorbacks reach two College World Series appearances, eight NCAA regional berths, three NCAA super regional appearances and two SEC Western Division titles.

Prior to coming to Fayetteville, Butler completed two assistant coaching stints (eight total years) at the University of Alabama and three years as the head coach at his alma mater, McNeese State. Before joining the University of Alabama coaching staff, he served as an assistant coach there in 1993 and 1994.

During his first stint with the University of Alabama Crimson Tide from 1995-2000, Butler served as the hitting instructor and outfielders coach. He helped guide Alabama to six NCAA Regional appearances, as well as three trips to the College World Series in 1996, 1997 and 1999. In 2001, Butler took over as head coach at McNeese State, where he compiled a 90-83 (.520) overall record in three seasons. Butler returned to Alabama as an assistant baseball coach in June, 2003. September 30 — Lela Meadow-Conner — Executive Director of Tallgrass Film Association

In 2003, lured by the thought of living in fly-over country and by her best friend, festival founder Timothy Gruver, Lela traveled to Wichita to produce the first Tallgrass Film Festival. She returned to produce the 2004 festival, and from 2005-2010 took on the role of Festival Director following Gruver's sudden death, commuting to Kansas every fall. In 2011, she was named Executive Director of the Tallgrass Film Association and relocated her family to Kansas. As Executive Director, she oversees festival programming, special events, marketing, social media, budgets, education, community partnerships and participates in fundraising. In 2012, the 10th annual Tallgrass Film Festival screened more than 190 films from 30 countries around the world and hosted more than 40 visiting filmmakers.

Raised outside of Boston, Lela attended California State University to study radio, TV and film. She worked at a boutique talent management firm, where she met Timothy Gruver. Lela went on to work for the executive producers of a Disney Channel series and a feature film producer. She was later tapped to join the world of movie marketing as a producer for Seismic Productions. Lela was integral in creating marketing campaigns for several award-winning films including "The Pianist" and "Lost in Translation." She joined Rohr Talent Public Relations in January of 2004, where she honed her skills in entertainment publicity. Lela has experience in event production, having created events for the Oscars®, Sundance Film Festival, and Golden Globes.

Lela attended UCLA for their Public Relations Certificate Program and later earned a degree in the culinary arts at Chicago's prestigious Kendall College.

RFP FOR INVESTMENT SERVICES

The WRCF board of directors recently adopted a resolution to put the management of the Fund's investments out for bid at least every 5 years. The competition is club-wide. A request for proposal (RFP) will be sent to all members who have a classification of Finance by the end of the week. Members who do not share the Finance classification but would like to participate can obtain an RFP by emailing Patty at patty@wichitarotary.org or calling the Rotary office at 262-4375.

HAITI OPPORTUNITY

Sam Muyskens, Haiti committee chair, is taking a small group of people to Haiti October 18-23. The committee is researching a potential major Rotarian project in Haiti. Sam will meet with local leaders and the Lambert Community Center Board of Directors. Tony Brown and Alice Huang, two internationally known musicians, will also accompany the group. They will perform with local Haitian musicians. Any member who can find the time and cover the cost of $850 - $1,000 (depending on the cost of airline tickets) is welcome! There are only four tickets remaining on the charter jet flight between Ft. Lauderdale and Cap Haitian, so your decision needs to be made ASAP. While in Haiti, you would have the chance to see the homes people live in, visit the classrooms, see first-hand projects accomplished by our club, attend the board of directors meeting, experience a newly formed Rotary Club we helped initiate, attend a concert, or hear Haitian music, and worship with the Haitian people. For more information call Sam Muyskens at (316) 708-4545.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Congratulations to Prisca Barnes, Mark Cassell and Joe Johnson, who were elected by the club's board of directors to serve as at-large members of the 2013-2014 Nominating committee.
