The Four-Way Test

Is it the TRUTH?	Is it FAIR to all concerned?
Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?	Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

February 22 — Ryan Baty
Owner — THE mattress HUB

Topic: Fighting Giants — THE mattress HUB Story

In 2008, Ryan Baty founded THE mattress HUB and has since developed it into a leading mattress retailer throughout Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri. The company employs over 80 people in sales, warehouse, delivery and office positions. As CEO, Baty is responsible for all aspects of the business including operations, merchandising, staffing, inventory management and corporate strategy.

Baty's hands-on approach to business has helped to build a strong corporate culture that focuses on developing all personnel both personally and professionally. Baty earned a master's degree in business administration (MBA) from Newman University in 2014 and has been recognized in the bedding industry as an innovative and aggressive leader.

Baty is a Wichita native who attended the University of Kansas on a baseball scholarship, where he studied strategic planning and history. From 2000-2004, he was a three-time team captain, as well as a multi-year All Conference (Big XII) and All American selection. In 2004, Ryan received the Jayhawk Scholar Athlete of the Year award and shortly thereafter signed a professional contract with the Tampa Bay Rays organization.

Ryan is married to Alicia and they have two children, Reese and Landry.

February 29 — Col. David Weishaar
Commander — 184th Intelligence Wing
McConnell Air Force Base

Topic: Many Missions of the Kansas Air National Guard's
184th Intelligence Wing

Colonel David A. Weishaar serves as Commander, 184th Intelligence Wing, one of the most mission-diverse wings in the Air National Guard, with operations located at McConnell Air Force Base, Wichita, Kansas, and Smoky Hill Air National Guard Weapons Range, Salina, Kansas. Colonel Weishaar commands more than 1,300 Guardsmen who provide intelligence processing, exploitation, and dissemination, network and information operations, command and control, and weapons range operations. The wing includes one of only two regional support groups, the largest weapons range, and the only network operations and security squadron in the Air National Guard.

Colonel Weishaar earned his commission in 1996 through the Air National Guard Academy of Military Science at McGhee Tyson Air National Guard Base, Tennessee. Colonel Weishaar served as the inaugural commander of the 127th Command and Control Squadron and also commanded the 299th Network Operations and Security Squadron, which oversees the largest number of user and administrative accounts in the Air Force and infrastructure in all states, territories and district of the United States. Prior to receiving his commission, Colonel Weishaar served as an enlisted member in the United States Air Force and Kansas Air National Guard.

Colonel Weishaar holds a bachelor of science degree in human resource management from Friends University.
