The Four-Way Test

Is it the TRUTH?	Is it FAIR to all concerned?
Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?	Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

October 31 — Dr. Amy Carey, President, Friends University

Topic: A Vision for a Thriving University in an Uncertain Higher Education Landscape

Dr. Amy Bragg Carey was selected by the board of trustees as president of Friends University in March of 2015 and began her role on July 1st. She comes to the university from Saint Paul, Minnesota, where she had served as the vice president of institutional advancement for the University of Northwestern since 2003. As vice president she led in the area of advancement for the university and media division. Her prior responsibilities at the University of Northwestern included oversight in the areas of marketing and communications, alumni and parent relations, admissions and financial aid.

Dr. Carey's prior professional experience includes four years (1999-2003) with Minnehaha Academy in Minneapolis, as director of development. Additionally, she spent 13 years with the HealthEast Foundation of Saint Paul. Dr. Carey served on the national standards committee for the ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) and is past chair of the Chief Institutional Advancement Officers Commission for the CCCU (Coalition for Christian Colleges and Universities). She is past president of the Minnesota Planned Giving Council, a professional development association, and has served on a number of community and non-profit boards.

Dr. Carey holds an Ed.D from Azusa Pacific University in higher education leadership, a M.A. degree in philanthropy and development from St. Mary's University in Winona, Minnesota and an undergraduate degree in communications from Bethel University in Minnesota.

Things that energize and renew Amy outside of her work world include her Wisconsin lake cabin, music and time with her family — her husband Bryan and adult children Anna and Brett. Anna is a 2013 graduate of the University of Northwestern and Brett is in his senior year there. Amy and Bryan are enjoying the many civic and cultural opportunities that the Wichita community offers.

November 7 — Chase Koch President of Koch Agronomic Services, LLC, a subsidiary of Koch AG & Energy Solutions

Topic: Creating Value by Embracing a Principled Entrepreneurial Mindset

Chase Koch is president of Koch Agronomic Services, LLC; a subsidiary of Koch Ag & Energy Solutions, LLC. In the mid-1990s, Mr. Koch began a series of summer jobs working for various Koch companies. Following graduation from Texas A&M University in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in business marketing, he worked in Texas for a consulting firm. In 2003, he returned to Wichita as a financial analyst for the Koch Equity Development Group. In 2006, he joined Koch Nitrogen Company, serving in regional management and global supply positions and later served as senior vice president of Koch Agronomic Services, LLC. He also served as vice president of International Business and most recently, president of Koch Fertilizer, LLC.

Mr. Koch serves as a board member of Koch Industries, Inc., the Charles Koch Foundation and is on the Board of Directors for The Fertilizer Institute. Koch Ag & Energy Solutions, LLC and its affiliates are a global provider of value-added solutions for the agriculture, turf and ornamental, energy and chemical markets.

Based in Wichita, Kan., Koch Industries, Inc. is one of the largest private companies in America with estimated annual revenues as high as $100 billion, according to Forbes. It owns a diverse group of companies involved in refining, chemicals, grain processing and biofuels; forest and consumer products; fertilizers; polymers and fibers; process and pollution control equipment and technologies; electronic components; commodity trading; minerals; energy; ranching; glass; and investments. Since 2003, Koch companies have invested more than $80 billion in acquisitions and other capital expenditures. With a presence in about 60 countries, Koch companies employ more than 100,000 people worldwide, with about 60,000 of those in the United States. From January 2009 to present, Koch companies have earned more than 930 awards for safety, environmental excellence, community stewardship, innovation, and customer service.

Congratulations!

MEETING NOTES — OCTOBER 24, 2016

Michael Schwanke, KWCH news anchor, moderated the panel between Sedgwick County Commission candidates Tim Norton and Michael O'Donnell on Monday. With the election only days away, the candidates were eager to explain their positions on multiple issues facing our community.

Mike Eck introduced Lonny McCurdy, auctioneer, broker and CEO of McCurdy Auction. Welcome, Lonny!

Denny Bender and Commissioner Tim Norton chatted after the meeting.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED BY OUR DISTRICT

Our District 5690 has over $20,000 earmarked for scholarships this year, including scholarships to the Rotary youth leadership camp (RYLA) in May, 2017. The district plans to award twelve $1,000 scholarships to either high school or college students in our district. Applicants may be related to Rotarians. An application can be obtained through the Rotary club office or on the District 5690 website. The deadline for application is February 15, 2017 and scholarships will be awarded on March 15, 2017. Please encourage your student friends and relatives to apply now.

RITE TEACHERS HOSTS

The RITE (Rotary Inter-Country Teacher Exchange) teachers from Panama and Argentina are due to arrive in mid-January and depart mid-February. They are teachers of English and speak the language fluently. We are looking for Rotarians willing to host a teacher for one week in their home, providing meals, transportation to and from their school assignment and participation in weekend excursions. Many of our members have enjoyed hosting RITE teachers over the years.

If you are interested and/or would like more information about RITE hosting, Please contact Shelli Kadel at kadelshelli@gmail.com or 316.644.8573.
