The Four-Way Test

Is it the TRUTH?	Is it FAIR to all concerned?
Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?	Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

JULY 23 — TED WOODWARD
KNSS RADIO PERSONALITY AND WICHITA HISTORIAN

TOPIC: A LOOK AT WICHITA HISTORY THROUGHOUT THE YEARS

Ted Woodward has been a sports and news reporter with KNSS for 23 years and the public-address announcer for Wichita State University baseball and volleyball for 29 years. He has been a performer and writer for the past 22 years in the annual Gridiron show produced by local journalists. He recently starred in the Signature Theatre production of the musical 1776 as John Adams, and he also appeared in several Forum Theatre productions including The Full Monty, Tommy, Urinetown, A Christmas Carol and Bat Boy.

Ted is a Wichita native and a graduate of Kapaun Mount Carmel High School and the University of Notre Dame. He enjoys visiting baseball stadiums across the country and viewing motion pictures from yesteryear on Turner Classic Movies. You can listen to Ted every weekday morning from 6:00-9:00 a.m. on "Steve & Ted in the Morning" on KNSS-Radio, 98.7 FM and 1330 AM.

AUGUST 6 — CATHY MCCLAIN
OWNER, DAUNTLESS LEADERSHIP, LLC
TOPIC: HANDS, HEAD, HEART — BEING A COURAGEOUS LEADER

Cathy McClain's Air Force career spanned 25 years and offered her a myriad of leadership and coaching experiences from commanding a KC-135 crew executing missions around the globe to teaching behavioral sciences and leadership at the United States Air Force Academy. She commanded at the squadron, group and wing levels. She deployed as a group commander, leading combat flight operations into Iraq and also served as the commander of the Air Force's largest tanker wing, the 22nd ARW at McConnell AFB. She culminated her military career at the Pentagon where she was the director of general officer promotions, assignments, and leadership development.

After the Air Force Cathy joined Boeing, leading teams working on B-52 weapons systems and KC-46 air refueling software. Next, she served as an executive at Spirit Aero Systems, leading the Business and Regional Jet programs. She is a Georgetown University-certified executive leadership coach. Her company, Dauntless Leadership, LLC, promotes courageous and people-centered leadership. She is chairman of the board of directors of the Air Force Academy Association of Graduates. In her spare time, she serves as a reserve Emergency Medical Technician for Sedgwick County.
